

Lane Blood Center: Case Study #341

The Challenge:

Lane Blood Center approached Net Visibility Group with some very specific needs and concerns.

- Client wanted a website that they had complete control over and were not locked into any proprietary CMS system.
- Employees required different levels of access to help maintain the constant updates needed for the website.
- They wanted to be more active in social media without consuming a large amount of employee time.
- Multiple domains needed to be consolidated without losing any authority each had already achieved in Google.
- Were in serious need of additional volunteers.

The Plan:

- Develop a custom open source and portable CMS system
- Design and build a website that was SEO friendly, including URL structure, meta-data, sitemaps and keyword density.
- Remove and rewrite all duplicate content.
- Redirect all content from across the internet to newly designed website
- Intergrade internal patient management system with website.
- Design system to automatically distribute daily content to major social media sites
- Develop and implement an aggressive link building strategy based on keywords targeted to reach the client's ideal customer.
- Utilize our proprietary local listing service NVG LocalList™ to clean up their multiple incorrect directory listings.
- Claim and optimize Local business listings in Google, Yahoo and Bing
- Frequent and proactive optimization monitoring.

The Results:

- Employees able to easily update and make changes to website.
- Social Media engagement up 400%
- Achieved # 1 position in Google natural organic search results for 91 different keyword phrases
- Decreased annual website expenditures to external vendors to almost nothing.
- "Volunteer" related search traffic up 1600%
- Organic search traffic up by over 600%
- Overall Visitors to website increased from less than 500 per month to over 3000
- Average time spent on website (customer engagement) more than doubled.

"Our website turned out just how we hoped and functions great! We get lots of compliments and have seen a large boost in traffic."
